

Lord, Help Me Be a Blessing Today

Lord, help me be a blessing today.

Help me to lessen the load of others.

Equip me to encourage and cue me to show compassion.

Where I can, help me walk alongside those who need a friend
with a listening ear and a helping hand.

Help me to not add to the burden of any person in any way.

Allow me to voice words of sympathy, sorrow, and caring.

Help me also speak blessings, compliments, and congratulations where I'm able.

Give me a heart to comfort and not compare, to serve without strife.

Lord, open my eyes to the ones who feel invisible.

Allow me to see those who aren't seen.

May I notice those who feel unnoticed.

Lead me to love without conditions, believe the best in others,
and shine Your light to everyone I meet.

I pray others see Jesus in me today.

In Jesus' name. Amen.
